Symphonic Band

"When You Believe" arranged by John Moss and Art Esteban
"You Raise Me Up" arranged by Michael Brown

The PHS Symphonic Band, established in 1983, has grown from strength to strength, continually striving for musical excellence. The band remains steadfast in its commitment to both artistry and discipline, most recently attaining the Certificate of Accomplishment at the Singapore Youth Festival Arts Presentation in 2025.

From the animated film The Prince of Egypt, "When You Believe", originally performed by Whitney Houston and Mariah Carey, is a powerful anthem of faith in the face of adversity. In this arrangement by John Moss and Art Esteban, the audience is taken on an emotional journey, starting with gentle introspection before building towards a stirring and triumphant climax.

"You Raise Me Up", popularised by Josh Groban, is a song that speaks of the strength we draw from those who uplift and support us. Arranged by Michael Brown, this piece showcases the band's expressive range, with its soaring melody leaving a lasting impression. Together, these pieces celebrate the enduring spirit of perseverance and the power of community, reflecting the band's own shared journey of growth and unity.

Modern Dance

"Our Faith, the Foundation" choreographed by Kwek Si Qi

The PHS Modern Dance aims to nurture dancers with strong values and character, cultivating both discipline and artistry in every member. Through dedication and commitment to their craft, dancers find expression in movement and music, growing in confidence and unity. In 2025, Modern Dance achieved the Certificate of Accomplishment at the Singapore Youth Festival Arts Presentation, reflecting their continued pursuit of excellence.

Choreographed as "Our Faith, the Foundation", this year's item explores the idea of faith as a steady and unshakeable base that supports growth and success. Through fluid movements and powerful formations, the dancers portray the challenges and uncertainties they face, and how faith gives them the courage to persevere. The piece unfolds as a journey of collective strength, where dancers uplift one another, finding purpose and resilience together. Ultimately, it is a celebration of how being grounded in faith enables them to rise above obstacles, strive for excellence, and reach their fullest potential.

Guzheng Ensemble

“ 美丽的天堂 ” [Cielito Lindo]
“ 耶稣恩友 ” / “To God Be the Glory” (medley)

The PHS Guzheng Ensemble is dedicated to promoting an appreciation of Chinese music while nurturing members' musical skills, teamwork and discipline. Through regular practices and performances, the ensemble continues to refine its artistry, building on its strong tradition of excellence at the Singapore Youth Festival Arts Presentation, most recently attaining the Certificate of Distinction in 2025.

This year's item features two contrasting works that explore themes of joy, gratitude and faith. “美丽的天堂” [Cielito Lindo] expresses a sense of warmth and hope, celebrating the beauty found in life's blessings through its lively and uplifting melody. This is followed by a hymn medley of “耶稣恩友” and “To God Be the Glory”, which reflects themes of trust and thanksgiving – reminding us of God's steadfast companionship and offering praise for His grace and salvation.
